Fill out each field; remember to use an email and password you'll remember or save it securely somewhere secure (no worries, you can reset your password- if you do forget it). Once you're finished filling out each field.

Tick the 'I'm not a robot'—a safety feature—and accept our T's & C's; feel free to read through it on our T's & C's page. Sign up registration can take up to 24 hours but is usually quick.

For paid features, like our advanced bots: Once your registration is approved and access to the paid pages is granted, when you log in to the website, you should be able to navigate to those pages to use our advanced features.
