

Master of Business Leadership
with Electives in Labour Relations
184 Credits NQF Level 9

Minimum 2 Years (Full-time), Maximum 4 Years

The Da Vinci Institute in association with Global Business Solutions have facilitated the development of a Master of Business Leadership with electives in Labour Relations, offering you a credible qualification in a sought-after field. The programme is facilitated by experienced Labour Law attorneys and facilitators over a number of workshops and covers key aspects of the core legislation regulating Labour Law in South Africa.

OVERVIEW OF THE MASTER OF BUSINESS

LEADERSHIP:

This programme is aimed at business leaders, senior managers and self-employed entrepreneurs who wish to undertake advanced scholarship, deep theoretical engagement and the ability to apply these to real world scenarios within the field of business leadership. The programme aims to contribute to knowledge relating to professional and/or organisational contexts, to probe and solve problems. As such, the programme will engage students to reflect critically on theory and its application within a range of contexts, in order to contribute to the advancement of business leadership and the sustainability of society.

The qualification further aims to recognise those who have the required competence in the field of research to serve in transformational management positions in organisations (public and private, including self-owned businesses) and the community at large, by enabling them to obtain a nationally registered and recognised qualification. The key objective of the Master of Business Leadership is the development of business manager and leaders who will initiate socio-economic change interventions and sustainable business development initiatives. The qualification aims to instill in students a thorough understanding of the application of the key elements of systems thinking, business development, technology management, and innovation, as well as people development, whilst focusing on sustainability and the increase local and international competitiveness.
